

A Practical Demonstration.
SARATOGA, N. Y., April 9.—William A. Rood, aged fourteen, accidentally hanged himself at Greenfield Center yesterday. The inquest to-day disclosed the fact that he had been making a practical demonstration of the manner in which executions are conducted for the information of a younger brother.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Two hundred journey men painters met yesterday to discuss proposed strike for an advance from $5.00 to $8 per day. In order to perfect the organization of a Painters' Co-operative Union, an adjournment was taken Wednesday, when no doubt the strike will be ordered. Great indignation was expressed by the men at the discovery that the bosses were issuing cards to men upon leaving a job, which bear certain capitalist signs understood by all the bosses, at which prevent the men from receiving the highest wages.

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—The Central Union, composed of delegates from the various branches in Philadelphia of the Parnell League, met yesterday to arrange for the National Convention, which will be held here on the 26th inst. The Executive Committee was instructed to issue a card for a public meeting to arrange for a banquet to be tendered to Mr. Parnell upon his arrival here to attend the convention. A dispatch was read from James Moore, President of the National League, questioning the accuracy of the cablegrams which had declared that Parnell would attend the convention. This was greeted with applause. Many tickets have already been sold for the reception to Mr. Parnell to be given in the Academy of Music on the 27th inst. It was resolved to invite Governor Pattison to preside at this reception.

Boston, April 9.—The suit of clothes which Cunliff suspected of the murder of Mrs. Carleton, threw into the Charles River was recovered, and has been given to a chemist for examination. It appears now that Clark, the informer, told several persons besides the police that Cunliff had confessed to him. To one he said that he had the piece of soap with which Cunliff washed the blood stains off his hands, and that he would not take $50 for it. The police point out a number of inconsistencies in his story, but it seems incredible that he should tell such a story if it were not partly true.

Democratic State Convention.

In pursuance of the resolutions of the State Executive Committee, adopted at Louisville, Ky., January 10, 1883, the Democratic voters of Mason county will meet in mass convention at the courthouse in Maysville, Ky., on Saturday, May 5, 1883, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the county in the State Convention to be held in Louisville, Ky., on May 16, 1883, at 12 m., to nominate a candidate for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Auditor, State Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Register of Land Office. On the basis of representation Mason will be entitled to thirteen delegates.

GARRETT S. WALL, Ch' D. E. C.
JNO. W. ALEXANDER, Secretary.

SENATOR DEXTER'S bill creating a board of tax commissioners has passed the Ohio House.

The official count of the vote at Cincinnati shows that Stephens' majority for Mayor is 2,263.

The river is higher at New Orleans than was ever known before and a part of the city is inundated.

The New York Sun describes the tariff bill which "went through" Congress at the last hour as a bill which increases the cost of the negro's hoe, and cotton overalls, and takes the stamps off of bank checks, patent medicines and tobacco.

Judge L. T. MANN, of Nicholas county has been nominated by the Democrats as a candidate for the Legislature over John P. Norrell, by about seventy-five majority. L. W. Martin, of Harrison county was nominated as the candidate for Senator.

The bill which has passed the Tennessee Legislature for the punishment of wife beaters provides that the whipping post shall be erected in a public place, and that the number of lashes to be laid on shall be fixed by the jury before whom the offender shall be tried.

A Reminick negro was sent forth from the Navy Department the other day because he refused to black the boots of a white official. "Evidently," says the Atlanta Constitution, "he is not a Southern negro. In this climate the negro Republicans have been carrying out spittoons and blacking boots for the white officers-soldiers ever since the war."

Junior Trenchard, of the Continent, speaking of public schools, says: "I dislike to say anything against the public school; but I see in its present development that the best is linked with the worst; the growth with the decay; and the decay will overcome. I have thought the fathers and mothers put too little into the life of their children. A baby is taken from its cradle and turned over to the care of the school master and into a book before it gets over winking from surprise. Standing a boy on end like a sausage and stuffing him full of facts is not a way to make men."

A DISPATCH from Frankfort, Ky., says: A very important order, promising much future vexation and litigation, and involving the consideration of large sums of money, was entered on the Order Book of the County Court to-day by Judge R. A. Thomson, in the case of the Commonwealth, for the county of Franklin, vs. the Farmers' Bank and the Deposit Bank, of this city. Under the general tax law, and in many instances, special clauses in their charters, the banks pay directly to the State Auditor a tax of fifty cents on each $100 worth of capital stock, claiming thereby exemption from the payment of all city and county taxes. The matter of a tax against corporations for county levy purposes has never been tested before, and to that end the sheriff of this county reported these banks delinquent from 1876 to 1882, inclusive. The case was first brought to the attention of Judge Thomson last summer, since which time he has been diligently examining the merits of the defendants' answers to the sheriff's rule, citing them to list their property for assessment, and in the order entered to-day he decides that the capital stock and all other property of these banks are liable for taxation for county levy purposes. If the Court of Appeals, where it is the intention to carry the suit, affirms this decision, it will spring a new source of county revenue in every county in the State, such banks only being exempted that have special clauses in their charters relating to this distinctive feature of revenue.

The postal legislation enacted by the last Congress is of much importance and benefit to the public. It provides that on and after July 1st of the current year, postal notes, in sums of $5 and under, may be had at any money-order office on payment of a fee of three cents. These notes will be payable to bearer upon presentation, within three months from date, at any money order office in the country. After three months they will be redeemed at their face in Washington. Another provision of the new law provides for the issue of money orders in a sum as large as $100, whereas the maximum now is $50. On and after July 1, next, fees for orders will be as follows:

Not exceeding $10.....	8 cents
From $10 to $15.....	10 cents
From $15 to $30.....	15 cents
From $30 to $45.....	20 cents
From $45 to $60.....	25 cents
From $60 to $75.....	30 cents
From $75 to $90.....	35 cents
From $90 to $100.....	40 cents

It is thought that there will be a very large and widespread use of the postal notes from the start and that the large number of persons who now habitually send currency in ordinary letters will prefer to purchase a postal note.

Of the distinguished weather prophets of recent years, the ground-hog is the only one that has any standing to-day. Prof. Tice subsided years ago, leaving nothing behind but a "blizzard." He will long be remembered as the originator of that term or at any rate, one of the first to use it. Of the two Canadians, Vennor and Wiggins, nothing whatever is left. They are as utterly squelched as old Mother Shipton or Parson Miller. The probable reason why the hog has come out ahead of the other prophets is that he had the "gumption" not to fix upon any particular day or days when he proposed to have good or bad weather, but said in a general way, as the old almanacs used to do: "Look out for a change about this time." A little more indecision might have saved the others as it did the hog.

MAYSVILLE was a busy place Monday. There were many more persons in town than is usual on County Court days and business generally was brisk over town. The First National Bank especially seemed to be a favorite place of resort and much business was transacted there during the day. The stock sales were well attended and while there was not much stock on the market the bidding was brisk and the prices good. Mr. W. E. Wells reports the following sales:

1 two year old male.....	$2 00
2 two year old males.....	170 00
1 cow and calf.....	45 00
2 three year old steers.....	85 00
1 two year old steer.....	34 00
1 bay horse.....	71 00
1 bay mare.....	82 00
1 sorrel mare.....	65 00
1 old saddle.....	2 00

The attention of the Democracy of the county is specially called to the notice of the Mass Convention to be held in this city on May 5th, to select delegates to the State Convention at Louisville, on May 16th, 1883. An entire State ticket will be nominated at the latter place, and as Mason has a large vote, she should be represented by her leading and best men. We hope for a full attendance.

James Russell Lowell on Dynamite.
London, April 9.—A banquet was given by the corporation of civil engineers at Kensington. Mr. James Russell Lowell, the United States Minister, was among the guests, and replied to the toast of "Our visitors." In the course of his remarks Mr. Lowell said:

"A more important function of diplomacy is to maintain good humor, good will, and an understanding between nations. In the way we look at certain fundamental questions, there is very little difference between the views of an Englishman and those of an American. Though I may not venture to allude to delicate topics, I can say that no American, any more than an Englishman, believes that assassination is war, or that dynamite is the raw material of policy."

Merrick Will Not Retire.
WASHINGTON, April 9.—It has been rumored that Mr. Merrick would withdraw, at the earliest possible moment, from the prosecution of the Star Route case upon the ground, ostensibly, that he can no longer neglect his private practice. The rumor was predicated upon the belief that the jury would acquit, and he does not wish to assume further responsibility, leaving it to Mr. Bliss. When your correspondent spoke of the report to Mr. Merrick, that gentleman laughed and said there was not the slightest bit of truth in it.

Base Ball at St. Louis.
St. Louis, April 9.—No less than 10,000 persons witnessed yesterday's game between the St. Louis club and the Springfield, of the Northwestern League. The St. Louis club won by a score of four to nothing.

MRS. DILLMAN'S STATEMENT.

The Dying Woman Relates the Details of Her Husband's Brutal Attack.

EASTON, Pa., April 9.—Coroner Usher visited the almshouse to-day and took the statement of Mrs. John Dillman, whose throat was cut by her husband last week, and who is rapidly growing worse. Her story, told as best possible under the trying and painful circumstances, is this: Her maiden name was Charlotte McNear, and she was the daughter of William McNear, of Hanover township. She married Dillman twenty years ago, and lived in various places with him, principally South Bethlehem, Freemansburg and Redington. Six months ago, while living at the latter place, Dillman threatened to kill her. They went to the almshouse in January with four children, remained two weeks, then went to Mrs. Dillman's brother's, in Bethlehem, and two weeks later the wife and children returned to the almshouse while Dillman went to Frackville, near Mahanoy City.

On the 25th of March he reappeared at the almshouse with a new dress for Mrs. Dillman and asked her to go to South Bethlehem, as he had rented a house. They accordingly started next morning. Dillman was in a good humor all the time. When near Hecktown he said he would turn in a lane, as it was a short cut to their destination. Just after entering the lane the wife seized his wife, threw her down, and placing a knee on her body, said she was tired of her and would kill her. She implored him to desist, and to let her live apart from him, but he paid no heed to her, but drew a piece of cord from his pocket, tied her hands, and then, opening a knife, cut her throat, she all the time entreating him to spare her life. He then ran across the fields. The rest of the story, how she walked 500 yards to a house, then a mile to Hecktown and finally was driven to the almshouse, has already been told.

Mrs. Dillman suffers a great deal. She cannot speak unless her throat is tightly bandaged. Food is passed to her through the opening in the neck. Twice this opening has been sewed up, but immediately after coughing sets in, and the action in the throat severs the stitches. When speaking, Mrs. Dillman frequently uses water to rinse her throat, as it becomes very dry and parched. The windpipe has been severed, and when she coughs it sometimes falls far into the chest. Her case is a remarkable one, and in the event of her recovery will be one of the most wonderful on record.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

House of a Sheriff Blown Up—Preparations for the Trial of the Phoenix Park Murderers—Great Fire in Switzerland, etc.

Dublin, April 9.—The house of the Sheriff at Trillick has been blown up with gunpowder. No person was injured. Two arrests have been made.

Dublin, April 9.—The secret inquiry into the Castle before Mr. Curran has not been concluded. From the peculiar method adopted by the authorities in conducting the examination of witnesses, it is believed that evidence is being collected for the purpose of making a strong rebuttal, in case the prisoners charged with the Phoenix Park murder should be able to prove their innocence. The detective police now claim that every movement of the men of May of the men who are to be arraigned as the actual murderers of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke, has been ascertained through discovering the persons with whom the men associated from time to time during the day and afternoon and up to the time when they left Dame street for the purpose of lying in wait at the place where the murders were committed. Extra precautions have been adopted at Kilmainham jail, where the great conspiracy prisoners are confined.

Geneva, April 9.—A fire which promises to assume extensive proportions has broken out at Bonne, near this city. Twenty houses have already been destroyed.

London, April 9.—A letter from Michael Davitt is published today in which he further expresses his opposition to a dynastic policy on the part of the Irishmen. He declares that such a policy is insane, idiotic and criminal.

Paris, April 9.—The police are keeping close watch over a number of Russian refugees here who they suspect are connected with the alleged plot to take the life of the Czar at the time of the coronation. It is reported that some French detectives will proceed to Moscow on that occasion to assist the Russian police in watching suspected persons.

The Augustinian Society.

Lawrence, Mass., April 9.—The Augustinian Society, which sunk half a million of Catholic money in unprofitable banking, will go into insolvency, not having been able to prevail upon the creditors to withdraw their lawsuits. It is expected that all the church property, including churches, school buildings, and several parcels of real estate owned by the society here, and other property in Andover, will be sold, the proceeds to go toward liquidating the existing debt.

Killed by Lightning.

Jasper, Tex., April 9.—During a thunder storm yesterday Tobias Netherland was killed by lightning, and Postmaster Harding severely shocked. Two horses were killed instantly, and several other persons severely shocked. Netherland's flesh was opened to the bone from the point of the shoulders down to the end of the right foot. The greatest excitement prevails.

HOG THIEF HANGED.

A Saturday Evening Matinee in Jefferson County, Mo.

Potosi, Mo., April 9.—The case of Mack Marsden, the hog thief, culminated in a lynching near De Soto, in Jefferson county. Long before Marsden was arrested for stealing hogs he was regarded as a desperate character, to be dreaded by every honest man. Two murders that had never been solved were attributed to him. One was that of a man named Vail, who was killed for his money and his cabin fired to conceal the crime. The other was that of Joseph Yerger, who was slain at his own door at Antonia Postoffice, not far from Hillsboro, the county seat.

He was tried at Hillsboro Saturday and admitted to bail. On his way home to Sandy Creek Bridge he was met late that night by a mob of Victorians.

Without any bandying of words a rider leaped from his horse and unceremoniously Marsden's neck in a noose at the end of a long rope. From the time the rope was put around his neck until he was taken to a tree on the hillside scarcely three minutes elapsed.

A short wait was given him while one end of the rope was thrown over a limb. Sturdy hands seized the rope along fifty feet of its length, and at the signal, "All ready, go," the doomed hog thief and murderer shot up ten feet in the air and hung until he was dead. After making sure of the result the lynchers rode away toward Sandy Creek.

Chicago Freight Rates Fall.

Chicago, April 9.—Within two weeks the volume of east bound freight—flour, grain, and provisions—from this city has fallen off 55 per cent. This indicates that the shippers are holding off for the opening of navigation. There are intimations of coming troubles between the east bound roads arising out of difficulties regarding the pool percentage and an attempt on the part of some of the roads to advance the rates on dressed beef, to which the Grand Trunk, which carries the bulk of the traffic, will not consent.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trivial with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unseasonable exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in many years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1871 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL, a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved my life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
"BOSTON, VI., July 15, 1882."

Croup.—A Mother's Testimony.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was at once procured. The cough was relieved in a few days, and the child was cured. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved my life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
"BOSTON, VI., July 15, 1882."

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 14, 1882.
"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine."
